

Automotive Technician

Hiring organization
Zontar Manpower Services Inc.

Description

Job Summary:

We are seeking highly skilled Automotive Technicians for dealership workshops in Australia. The ideal candidates must have experience working with major car brands and demonstrate strong diagnostic and repair capabilities in both electrical and mechanical systems.

Employment Type
Full-time

Job Location
Australia

Responsibilities

Date posted
May 14, 2025

- Perform diagnostics, maintenance, and repairs on vehicles in accordance with dealership and manufacturer standards.
- Inspect and troubleshoot vehicle systems including engines, transmissions, brakes, air conditioning, and electronics.
- Use diagnostic tools and scan equipment to identify issues accurately.
- Carry out vehicle servicing and preventive maintenance.
- Provide high-quality workmanship and ensure vehicles are returned in excellent working condition.
- Maintain up-to-date records of work completed and follow all safety and operational guidelines.
- Collaborate with service advisors and workshop supervisors for efficient workflow.

Qualifications

- Must have experience working in a dealer's workshop (Hyundai, Ford, Mitsubishi, Mazda, Honda, Nissan, and other leading brands).
- Solid knowledge and hands-on experience with mechanical and electrical systems.
- Must be 40 years old or below.
- Strong diagnostic, repair, and problem-solving skills.
- Ability to work under pressure and meet tight deadlines.
- Good communication and teamwork abilities.
- Certificate in Automotive Technology or equivalent is preferred.